

April 12, 2023 NMDA Minutes

Roll Call: Maribeth St Cyr/President, John Collins/VP, Amy Glenn/Member-at-Large, Sarah Turner/Membership, Diana Corbin/Secretary

Amy moved to approve minutes from March meeting. Sarah seconded it.

Sarah is still having computer issues with February minutes.

John says that the arena is ready to go for the show this weekend. Also no one has applied for any grants.

Sarah shared that there are now 56 members. Also that she believes that there is trouble with the mail system, that she is not getting in forms that people say they have sent. Also people have asked if they are getting test booklets. This was taken off our membership forms any online.

Amy would like the Best Dressed Award to have a link from USDF to share. Maribeth will be sending this out with an updated email so members know what to expect for this new award.

Treasurer's report: General Fund: $18,807.77

$240 was taken out this month to go for membership to USDF.

$715 for show insurance.

Maribeth will need $100 for office supplies (This was approved Cindy made a motion/Diana seconded it)

Education Fund: $3,312.36

Expenses for Clinic:

$86 For lunch

$600 was needed for venue for Rachel Saavadra Clinic

$2,400 for Rachel Saavadra

Income for clinic:

Auditors $465

Riders: $2000

Cost to total fund was: $621

Cindy shared about the Clinic. The potluck was well attended. We had 19 auditors for the clinic. We need to put pictures on Facebook.

Maribeth asked for tack swap items as we are low on inventory.

The show coming up this weekend at Cherry Tree Farm has 53 rides. We decided to have snacks out with a donation bowl in-front of office area. Also Maribeth will get Domino's Pizza and Caesar Salad for purchase and to feed volunteers. Amy made a movement to approve this purchase. John seconded it.

Maribeth asked John to go around with a clipboard and make sure volunteers had their hours documented.

Radios have already been approved but are needed this weekend between warm-up and gate volunteers.

The May show was discussed and also the ride/re-ride clinic. We will need to charge riders $90 for re-ride fees to cover judge and venue. We will charge auditors $10 across the board.

Flyers need to go out this weekend at the show so people know it is coming. Cindy will work on this.

Amy moved to adjourn meeting. Sarah seconded it.
